Food Technician

Term Time £16,503 - £17,181 (£13,887 - £14,457)

(36 hours per week – times negotiable).

We are looking for a reliable and enthusiastic Food Technician to join our D&T department. The successful applicant will need a good knowledge of food and cooking, enjoy working with young people and have a hard-working, flexible approach to work.

The post involves supporting the pupils and teacher during Food Technology lessons and being responsible for organising, cleaning and setting up classrooms before each lesson. Cleaning, shopping and ordering ingredients will be a regular part of the job. Ad hoc duties will be required so a positive attitude would be warmly received.

Possession of a basic food hygiene certificate and first aid is desirable (or willingness to attend these courses)

The School is committed to safeguarding the welfare of children & vulnerable adults. The successful applicant will be required to apply for an Enhanced Disclosure from the CRB.

Candidates should apply in writing to the Headteacher, Mrs Phillips, enclosing a full CV including two referees.

Interviews will be held as applications arrive.
